

Saudi ASMA Environmental Solutions
Our Way to a Better Environment

Saudi Asma, an established Environmental Malaysian based company is currently looking for experienced Business Development personnel that fulfils the following requirements:

Business Development Manager

Requirements:

- Minimum BSc in Environmental Engineering or Environmental Science or any other discipline;
- A minimum of seven (7) years experience in business development
- A minimum of three (3) years experience working in Saudi Arabia;
- Having previous experience of securing environmental work with Saudi Governmental agencies/ multinational industries in Saudi Arabia will be an added advantage
- Excellent communication & influencing skills
- Must be fluent in English language.
- Must possess Saudi Driving Licence

Job Description:

- Look for business opportunities with the government agencies and the general industries in the area of environmental management and compliance typically in the areas of environmental management services.
- Prepare business proposals to clients in the identified areas
- Planning and preparing presentations to the prospective clients